

Gail A. Hornor, RNC, CPNP

*Clinical Nurse Specialist/Pediatric Nurse Practitioner
Columbus Children's Hospital*

Training:

Mount Carmel School of Nursing, Columbus, OH (1980)
BSN – Franklin University, Columbus, OH (1994)
MSN – Wright State University, Dayton, OH (1995)
PNP – The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH (1997)
Staff Nurse, Columbus Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH (1980-93)

Gail Hornor is a Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner and Certified Pediatric Nurse. She has experience with Staff Nursing, coordinating and implementing the Franklin County Advocacy Center, supervising and educating the medical, nursing and social work students regarding child abuse and neglect, as well as teaching child abuse issues to the hospital and community. She provides physical examinations and psychosocial and medical assessments of child abuse victims and their families at the Center for Child and Family Advocacy.

Mrs. Hornor has developed an academic career with several peer reviewed publications in the area of child sexual abuse. She has participated as an invited speaker in various educational venues locally on child sexual abuse as well as physical abuse.

Professional Interests:

Nursing education and training in child sexual abuse