

Megan McGraw, MD

Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Nationwide Children's Hospital

Megan McGraw, MD is an attending physician for the Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Nationwide Children's Hospital and Assistant Professor of Clinical Pediatrics at The Ohio State University College of Medicine. She is board certified in General Pediatrics. Dr. McGraw's clinical interests include child sexual abuse, child physical abuse, and Munchausen's Syndrome by Proxy. Her professional interests include medical student, resident, and fellow education as well as medical education research. Dr. McGraw is currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Education through the University of Cincinnati. She is a member of the Ray E. Helfer Society, the American Academy of Pediatrics, AAP Section on Child Abuse and Neglect, and the Ambulatory Pediatrics Association.