

Kimberly A. Paul

Kimberly Paul is the Director of Operations at the Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Nationwide Children's Hospital. Her primary responsibilities include daily program development and operations, budgetary and financial management, staff development, and strategic planning. She has been with Nationwide Children's Hospital for almost ten years, and prior to joining the Center, she worked in strategic planning and business development, supporting several initiatives and divisions of the hospital. She also provides support as a retreat and strategic planning facilitator.

Kimberly is a graduate of Ohio University, with both an undergraduate degree in Biological Sciences and a master's degree in Health Administration. She currently serves as Vice President, Board of Directors, for the Ohio Network of Child Advocacy Centers, serves on the Board of Trustees of the Olentangy Education Foundation. She previously served as the founding President of the Greater Ohio Healthcare Leaders' Forum, the local chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives. She is a 2006 recipient of the American College of Healthcare Executives' Regent's Award.