

Jonathan D. Thackeray, MD

Clinical Director, Child Assessment Center, Center for Child and Family Advocacy, Nationwide Children's Hospital

Associate Program Director, Pediatric Residency Program Nationwide Children's Hospital

Assistant Professor of Clinical Pediatrics, Department of Pediatrics, The Ohio State University Medical Center

Medical School:

MD - Medical College of Ohio, Toledo, Ohio (2000)

Post Graduate Training:

After graduating from the Medical College of Ohio in 2000, Dr. Thackeray completed a residency and chief residency in internal medicine and pediatrics at Indiana University. Following this training he completed a fellowship in child abuse and neglect at Cincinnati Children's Hospital and Medical Center in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. Thackeray joined the faculty in 2005 and is currently an Assistant Professor of Clinical Pediatrics at The Ohio State University College of Medicine. He is the Clinical Director of the Child Assessment Center and Fostering Connections Program clinics at the Center for Child and Family Advocacy. He also serves as an Associate Program Director of the pediatric residency at Nationwide Children's Hospital and is the Director of the Step II Clinical Skills Preparation Program at the Ohio State University. Dr. Thackeray has presented nationally on various aspects of child abuse, neglect and family violence.

Dr. Thackeray is a board certified child abuse pediatrician and a member of the Ray E. Helfer Society. He is active in the American Academy of Pediatrics' Section on Child Abuse and Neglect and serves as Editor of the section's newsletter.

Professional Interests:

Intimate partner violence, physical abuse and resident education.