

Jami M. Casto, MSHCS, LSW

Program Coordinator, Child Assessment Center, Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Nationwide Children's Hospital

Jami Casto has served as Program Coordinator for the Child Assessment Center at the Center for Child and Family Advocacy since 2003. Her primary responsibility is assisting families with intervention planning for children who have been sexually or physically abused. In addition, Mrs. Casto facilitates multi-disciplinary team meetings to ensure quality of care for children served at the Center. She also serves as a speaker in the community regarding child abuse issues.

Prior to assuming her current position, Mrs. Casto worked in the field of child welfare for 11 years including the following positions: Clinical Team Leader for a contract agency supervising social workers providing ongoing case management; Child Welfare Caseworker III at Franklin County Children Services including working as both a sexual abuse investigator and an ongoing caseworker in a specialized abuse unit.

Mrs. Casto is a graduate of The Ohio State University in 1990 with a Bachelor of Science in Social Work. She earned a Master of Science in Human and Consumer Sciences with a major in family studies and a minor in family life education from Ohio University in 2004. She is a licensed social worker in the State of Ohio.