

Welcome to the Education Department's International Scholars Program!

You can access our web pages at:

http://www.nationwidechildrens.org/international-scholars-program.

We have tried to anticipate questions from potential scholars and interested foreign institutions might have about our program. You can view these at:

http://www.nationwidechildrens.org/international-scholars-http://www.nationwidechildrens.org/international-scholars-frequently-asked-questions.

There are several different programs within our Scholars Program, and they are described at:

http://www.nationwidechildrens.org/isp-programs.

Applicants to our programs must meet certain criteria. Those are shown at: http://www.nationwidechildrens.org/isp-selection-criteria-and-application.

We have three program coordinators, each of whom works with certain sections of the world. For a list of their names and the countries, log on to http://www.nationwidechildrens.org/isp-programs. From there click on "Regions," then "View a listing of staff members."

Please email us at ISP@NationwideChildrens.org if you have questions.
