

Potential 504 Accommodations for a Student Undergoing Treatment for Childhood Cancer or a Hematologic Disorder

- Shortened school days
- Supplemental home instruction for re-teaching or missed classes
- Reduced work load by shorter or fewer assignments
- Grades based on work completed rather than work assigned
- Extended time to complete homework or tests
- Use of elevator at school
- Permission to leave class early for travel in uncrowded hallways
- Locker located near primary classrooms
- Second set of textbooks to be kept at home
- Copies of classroom notes or lesson materials presented in class
- Scribe as needed for long written work
- Preferential classroom seating on the edge of the room to reduce exposure to germs
- Permission to carry water bottle and/or snacks as needed
- Permission to use the restroom as needed
- Buddy system for visits to the nurses office in case of feeling ill
- When rest breaks are needed, a quiet space outside the nurses office/clinic should be available
- Permission to wear a hat at school
- Prompt phone contact with parent when contagious illness is present in the classroom

NATIONWIDE CHILDREN'S
When your child needs a hospital, everything matters.SM